

Jobspot agency is looking for ambitious and motivated candidates who would like to gain practical experience in a leading production company in the FMCG industry. By taking part in a student internship or internship program at KPS Food, you will perform tasks that correspond to the responsibilities of employees in a specific production or non-production department, depending on your field of study. Thanks to this, you will learn the practical aspects of working under the supervision of experienced professionals and the specificity of the activity of one of the largest meat plants in Poland, which can help you make important decisions about your future career.

1) We are open to people who are just starting their professional career, so we do not require previous experience. We sincerely encourage you to submit your application. You can do this by sending an email to: work@jobspot.com.ua or by contacting the recruitment department at tel. 695 032 700

2)After we receive your application, we will contact you by phone to discuss your candidacy

3)Together, we will establish an apprenticeship or internship program that will be tailored to your individual expectations and organizational capabilities of our company.

Feel free to contact us - we will discover new opportunities for developing your career!

Working on the production line at KPS Food is a dynamic and responsible position that requires accuracy, the ability to work in a team and compliance with quality procedures and standards. The company cares about the safety and quality of products, which is why your commitment and accuracy in performing tasks are crucial for us.
